 Subject: Provider Letter No. 17-10 – Retired DAHS Provider Letters

The Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services (DADS) is retiring several provider letters (PLs) issued on or before December 31, 2008, in accordance with a new policy announced by PL 17-08. Therefore, these policy letters will no longer be available and should no longer be referenced. Provider letters over eight years old that still contain valid information will be reviewed in the upcoming year to include new requirements and guidance, as applicable, and will be reissued with a new PL number.
